June 8, 2023

LIEDAcademy with Ian Bostridge & Julius Drake

LIEDBasel awards scholarships to young singers and pianists who are a permanent Liedduo at the end of their studies or at the beginning of their professional career.

The scholarship for LIEDBasel from 22.-26. May 2024 includes:

- Master classes with the Duo in Residence Ian Bostridge (tenor) & Julius Drake (piano)
- Workshop with Klaus Brömmelmeier (acting, stage perception, language, presence and implementation)
- Coaching for career development
- Public concert performances during the festival
- Participation in all concerts, panels and events of LIEDBasel 2024
- Accommodation with host parents in Basel
- Digital and analogue media presence on all social media channels and on the web
- Additional concert opportunities apart from the festival (e.g. program release, house concerts, etc.)

Application:

Interested song duos send the following documents to info@liedbasel.ch

1. Current, tabular CV of both duo members
2. Portrait photos of both duo members
3. Short duo biography (max. 1000 characters)
4. Own letter of motivation and recommendation
 1. (e.g. from teachers or music personalities)
5. Two video recordings: a German art song from the romantic repertoire and a song of your choice

ATTENTION: Videos must be uncut and included in the email as an accessible video link.

Applications with edited videos, incomplete material or videos that need to be downloaded will not be considered.

Closing date: August 31, 2023

Application information:

Applications are only possible if the participants are fully available during the festival.

All applicants will receive notification by September 30, as to whether they have been invited to a virtual interview with Silke Gäng (artistic director). On October 31, the final decision on the duos' admission to the LIEDAcademy will be announced.
